1-chome - Yuyu Hall

This place was originally a smaller office of the shopping street. When the next-door neighbor moved away, the landowner was kind enough to combine the 2 buildings into one that measured about 20 tsubo (66 m²). This building, completed in 1997, came to be the assembly hall of 1-chome.

Yuyu hall was named under the hope that everybody can do business in comfort (= yuyu in Japanese)!! This hall is available on rent, for members as well as non-

アーケードに鳥居が付いている3丁目

天三のアーケードは戦後間もなく作ら れた天幕 (テン ト式)から数えて4代目になります。平成7年にアーケ ード準備委員会が結成されどの様なアーケードに するか を論議する中で和風が取り上げられそこに鳥居を吊るす 案が提案されました。

ドーム型にしない屋根型(三角)にしてそこに鳥居を 吊るすというのです。天満の天神さんのお膝元という事 と天満宮の門前町を形で表現したかったのです。天三商 店街は天神橋筋の中で最も長い商店街です

その東西には3つの辻があり4つのブロックに分かれ ています。

- 1) 各ブロックに鳥居を吊ろう(3ヶ乃至4ケ)
- 2) 各ブロック毎に色を変えよう
- 3) 色の名前は古代の日本色の名にしよう
- 4) 天満宮に近いブロック(南側)は赤い色にしよう

そして完成したのが4色の鳥居でした。

3-chome - Arcade with hanging Torii

The arcade of Tensan is now in its fourth generation, ever since a tent was first set up right after World War II. With the forming of the Arcade Arrangements Committee in 1995, discussions were held on a new design for the arcade that saw the adoption of a Japanese style design, which was followed by a proposal to hang some Torii too.

Instead of a dome shape, the arcade has a roof-shape (triangular). with Torii hanging from it. The intent behind this design was to express that the street is the home turf of Tenjin (one of the Gods of Shintoism) of Tenma, while at the same time being situated in front of the Tenmangu Shrine.

Tensan shopping street is the longest of all the shopping streets in Tenjinbashisuji. It has 3 crossings that stretch from east to west, and is divided into 4 blocks.

- 1) A hanging Torii in each block (3 4 in total)
- 2) Different colors for each block
- 3) Traditional Japanese color names for colors in each Torii
- 4) Red colored Torii for the block closest to Tenmangu (the south

With this, Torii in 4 different colors were completed. From the north

Moegi(between blue and yellow)

Asagi(greenish indigo blue)

Kikyo(blue purple)

Masoo(dark vermilion)

Each Torii shows its color name - Moegi, Asagi, Kikyo and Masoo.

If you cannot read the name, please don't hesitate to ask to the shops in the street.

This can be a nice start to conversing with them.

北側から 萌黄色 (青と黄の間の色)

浅葱色 (緑を帯びた藍色)

桔梗色 (青紫色)

真朱色 (黒味を帯びた朱色)

鳥居の下にそれぞれ萌黄・浅葱・桔梗・真朱と入れ ました。

2-chome with the Omukae dolls that welcome you

On the occasion of the Tenjinmatsuri festival, which is fitting held on the "Tenjinbashisuji 2-chome shopping street" which has a long history as the front approach to the Osaka Tenmangu shrine, "Omukae dolls" - dolls which welcome a procession of the Gods by boat- are displayed at the entrance of this street arcade. 'Omukae dolls' originated in Kyoho era (1716-1735) during Edo Period. After they were displayed in the various streets, they would then be decorated on boats that sailed up the Okawa river to welcome the Gods.

The dolls on the arcade entrance are based on these "Omukae dolls".

The faces, which are the most important for the dolls, are made by the expert artisans of genuine Hakata dolls, and show fine workmanship like the real Omukae dolls.
